You changed me and the way I felt about men

I was just so disgusted cause the one I loved I couldn't trust  $\operatorname{him}$

And you told me that if I never been hurt I would not know what happiness is

And just how good it feels

I was scared to give you all of me Cause my last love he left me helplessly Like a bird with out his wings I was just sitting around

Yes I was so afraid

Going through the same thing again baby

I hate it to fall in love cause I have been through so many things I cant name

Same type, same thing, same game

But you showed me not to block my heart from every man that cam  ${\sf e}$  walk up to me

Cause you were the right one for me

I was scared to give you all of me Cause my last love he left me helplessly Like a bird with out his wings I was just sitting around

I never thought I would ever find love this
I had no trust at all cause ever man but you had did me wrong
Here's a wonderful thang
Since I let go of my past loves
Im glad I gave you a chance to show me you're a good man

I was scared to give you all of me Cause my last love he left me helplessly Like a bird with out his wings I was just sitting around
