

Shoulda Known

Lil' Mo

Shoulda known you had a girl
Shoulda known you had someone to go home to
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
Shoulda known your time was taken
Shoulda known someone was loving you
Shoulda known you was to good to be true

I coulda been a been such a fool not to see something so visible
Cause I was blinded by the physical
And you kept me from being seen with you, so I guess I couldn't see right th rough
That you had another side to you, shoulda known

Shoulda known you had a girl
Shoulda known you had someone to go home to
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
Shoulda known your time was taken
Shoulda known someone was loving you
Shoulda known you was to good to be true

We always met at a private place, my place or a secret rendezvous
When I asked where you lived you give the same excuse
I never met you kids ever been to your crib, never met your family your frie nds
After 2 years im convinced but im confused

That my perfect gentleman cheated me
But I can't love any man
Just to think this thing going on
Makes more sense

Shoulda known you had a girl
Shoulda known you had someone to go home to
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
Shoulda known your time was taken
Shoulda known someone was loving you
Shoulda known you was to good to be true

You were the one that I wanted yeah
You were the one that I needed yeah
But someone already had you yeah
Baby how did I not see it

Shoulda known you had a girl
Shoulda known you had someone to go home to
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
Shoulda known your time was taken
Shoulda known someone was loving you
Shoulda known you was to good to be true

Shoulda known you had a girl
Shoulda known you had someone to go home to
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
Shoulda known your time was taken
Shoulda known someone was loving you
Shoulda known you was to good to be true
