

Why

Lil' Mo

Why do you keep doing this to me?
And I fall for it every single time
You make me believe you've changed
Come to find out you're just making me a game
Why do you keep doing this?
No why do I keep doing this to myself
Five thousands times we've been off and on Ain't taking your, if I can't be number one

One more night I'm lying in my tears
I'm lonely singing sad songs
Can't believe that I was that gone
But tonight I'm gonna face my fears
Baby it's over, gotta let you go
Cause to me you could never be faithful

I know that the roses that she sends
You used to say were mine

They weren't mine
Though I'm trying to hide my pride
You know my heart is torn apart

Out of sight is where to go for me
I'll make it
I'll get along
No more crying, singing glad songs
Out of mind is where I know you'll be
You should've loved me when I was there
Now the love is gone and I don't care

I know about the dream you had
You said that you dreamed of me
I wasn't asleep
You were all of my world
But no more
My heart is weak but my mind is sure
