Rumors

Hi this is Steve Austin reporting live from San Diego, California I'm here with two controversial rappers from the city Lil' Rob and Mr. Shadow aka the Mayhem Click And we're talking about rumors Now Lil' Rob we understand you have an album out called The Crazy Life Can you tell us some of the rumors that have emerged since the release Of that album, and some of the things you've been through

Well let me put it like this all these fools talking shit all the time I was 16 with the bullet, representing the 619 But these fools couldn't take it, they didn't want me to make it And so they'd rather hate it because they just can't fade it Gang related, situated, now I'm back These putos talking smack, but I kind of like that in a way And one day I might say they're the ones who helped me do this Had it in me all the time and I knew this, I'm still foolish Fools are clueless to what I can do with my ability Thought of myself as a cholo not a real MC So I did what I did and I'm so glad that I did it Because it put some chips in my pocket when I'm finished Using words like simon and leva People try to put me down but end up floating down the river See I told you twice before, but I'll say it one more time You do your thing holmes, but I'ma do mine

And basically that's what I think All these fucking fools can talk all the fucking shit about me 'cause I could give a fuck, you know what I mean This proves I'm above their level, you know

Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people

So Shadow, I understand you're having similar problems to those of Lil' Rob Is there anything you'd like to say to them player-haters? And if so, what would it be?

Man I gotta give it up to those punk who try and diss me Talking mad shit, but they miss me, remenice me Because they used to talk head about my rhymes And when they heard me on the radio they request it till I die And I bust at it and I love you yapping lips 'cause it makes me rap my rolas and my music, stack my chips This is Shadow the crazy vato them fools want to battle Then they end up on the gravel when they act like hoes and tattle Now why would you want part of this truthfulness Don't get caught up in the mix 'cause I hate them phony putos dippin all up in my business Ese gotta hit the street for all them fools that player-hate 'cause ain't no bunch of chavalas stopping me from making bank I need to take it to make it, like laws I break it unfaded I'll be remaining like Satan, I'm serving hate to those who perpertrating

That's pretty much how I feel So I tell them haters you can only witness what you see Not the things you hear Remember that

Lil Rob

Since we're talking about rumors I heard Lil' Rob and Shadow weren't always the best of friends So Shadow can you clear that up for us and tell us what's really going on?

Simon we had some problems but like adults we had to squash it We formed the Mayhem Click (Why?) 'cause everybody wants it The badest motherfuckers together no one's ever gonna intimidate us Just imitate us, player-hate us Don't bother anylising anything we do 'cause the shit we kick is tight and you know that this is true Mr. Shadow and Lil' Rob making heads bob and it don't stop 'cause we're bound to keep on flowing till you see our caskets drop

It's that one little cholo back before I go Just thought I'd let you know that you can never stop my flow So I suggest you put that shit to rest, quit talking all that mess You're just talking about the best and you're just wasting your breath As I sit here, thinking never thought it would be you The city that I represent talking all that shit See 'cause all we do is kick it and mind my our business Lil' Rob and Mr. Shadow (scratching fools off the bitch list)

So now you know where we're coming from And with that, it concludes our story for today I hope you motherfuckers learned your leason And learned how to keep your fucking trap shut And quit spreading rumors that aren't true 'cause that shit be getting motherfuckers in trouble And believe me you don't want part of that You don't want none of this Mayhem Click And we're out
