

Back Up Girl

Lillix

Wide awake
I'll question forever
Nothing I say
Will answer why your away
What broke us apart?
There's no reason that I can see
When I ask you refuse
How did you get over me?

Well I don't really love is hard to say
Do you really wanna hear that your the one that I play?
And I don't want to tell you so you'll always be there
Your my back up girl and I don't really care about you

Did I push you away?
I can do better
Please won't you stay?
And wipe these tears away
When I ask you refuse
How did you get over me?

Well I don't really love is hard to say
Do you really wanna hear that your the one that I play?
And I don't want to tell you so you'll always be there
Your my back up girl and I don't really care about you

Your the only one who can say the words
To get you off my mind
You can make things right

Well I don't really love is hard to say
Do you really wanna hear that your the one that I play?
And I don't want to tell you so you'll always be there
Your my back up girl and I don't really care about you (2x)
