

Poor Little Girl

Lillix

I've got the California blues
When I am down, I always lose
So don't put me in this restraining room
Cause I don't know where to go
Now tell me, are you happy?
With how they like to exploit you too?
Are you in control now? No, cause you don't know where to go

Poor little girl, sad little world
Smile on her face, keeps us all safe.

Is she laughing when she's smiling?
Or is that a face that she carries 'round?
To use when she hits a low
Just shake it up, let it go.
How do you deal with their lies and blues?
If you're feeling down you'll always lose.
So don't put me in this restricted room
'Cause I don't know where to go

Poor little girl, sad little world
Smile on her face, keeps us all safe.

Now tell me, are you happy?
With how they like to exploit you too?
Are you in control now? No, cause you don't know where to go

Poor little girl, sad little world
Smile on her face, keeps us all safe.
