Shame for You

I've been thinking that you've crossed the line, if you disappeared that would be just fine, 'cause you waste my time and waste my money and you're not too cool and not too funny! Spreading your seed all over the town getting too greedy and messing around: Oh my gosh you must be joking me if you think that you'll be poking me.

Don't take me on no, no Don't take me on no, no Don't take me on Shattered the lie but you think I don't already know, Don't try to deny 'cause my fuse is ready to blow Its your turn to learn I think that you know where to go It's a shame, shame, shame for you

Please don't come around and knock on my door 'cause I don't want to have to pick you up of the floor, when you ask if we can still be lovers, I'll have to introduce my brothers, Think that they could teach you a lesson or two, By the time they've finished you'll be black and blue You'll be crying like a baby, A sea of tears they'll call the navy in.

Don't take me on no, no Don't take me on no, no Don't take me on Shattered the lie but you think I don't already know, Don't try to deny 'cause my fuse is ready to blow It's your turn to learn I think that you know where to go It's a shame shame for you
