

Marlboro Man

Lily Kershaw

stop.
take a moment of your life to find out where you are going and crawl through the barren land of your plan to the beauty of not knowing and come on down to the place where we met and i sent you that shot of whiskey smoke was in your eyes and your hair fluttered by you were never with me

so pull the trigger nice and fast cause the best for me hasn't happened yet you're the marlboro man predictable with your plan you're so damn scared
you don't understand that

life is for the living
not the living dead
you make your bed
refuse to lie in it
life is for the willing you're only willing to stick to the plan go buy a pack, marlboro man

please don't get down on your knees and act like you're repenting i know you know i know you better than this and i am done mending what was meant to be a broken joke get out of my house go have a smoke i'm on my way to wonderful my future is bright don't get blinded by the light

i counted the hours it took for you to call and i counted those same hours leading out into the fall
