

Promised Land

Lily Kershaw

I gave you my body
It wasn't enough
And now all I can say
Is all that I won't

I gave you my body
You tore it apart
And I'm coming down
I'm coming down

Bring me home if you can
To the promised land
Bring me home if you can
To the promised land

Use your words as weapons
To take me from here
Cause I'm on the edge about
To jump I fear

The ground's so enticing
Could this hell be a home
I'm no one's daughter anymore
I'm on my own

Bring me home if you can
To the promised land
Bring me home if you can
To the promised land

The promised land
The promised land
And I will not be forgotten here
And I will not be forgotten here
Oh please don't let me be forgotten here

Oh, bring me home if you can
To the promised land
