

Sleep Peacefully

Lily Kershaw

What story should I tell
But I'm happy that it turned out well
What dreams do I owe
Can I call any place my own

And I rock myself to sleep and I tell myself don't get caught t oo deep
Cause I know by now you're not coming for me
And I tell myself move along
And I tell myself you were all wrong
But I know by now wrong was right for me
Sleep peacefully

Ships sail across the sea
whether it's stumbly or rocks gently
I wish you were a ship that was guided by the touch of my lips

And I rock myself to sleep and I tell myself don't get caught t oo deep
Cause I know by now you're not coming for me
And I tell myself move along
And I tell myself you were all wrong
But I know by now wrong was right for me
Sleep peacefully
Sleep peacefully
Sleep peacefully

And I rock myself to sleep and I tell myself don't get caught t oo deep
Cause I know by now you're not coming for me
And I tell myself move along
And I tell myself you were all wrong
But I know by now wrong was right for me
Sleep peacefully
Sleep peacefully
Sleep peacefully
