

Rhythm Of Love

Limahl

People of the world
United as one
Through the power of music
It's the rhythm of love
People of the world
Relieves from your soul
And passion inside you
When you're out on the floor
Oh oh you're body's now in demands
Oh oh everybody understands

The rhythm of love...4x

Music is the language
I feel so alive
My body's now sweating
And my temperature's high
Music in the language
My energy source
Now the rhythm of love
Is the ultimate force
Oh oh your body's now in demand
Oh oh everybody understands

The rhythm of love...
