

So Far So Good

Limahl

It only seems like yesterday
She walked out on me with nothing to say
I spent my nights out on the town
Just living in the fast lane running around
But you have shown me
Something stronger than before baby

So far so good
Shot through the heart without a trace of blood
So good so far
A victim of love without a single scar

You caught my eye looking at you
I was checking you out playing it cool
You hypnotized me couldn't resist
I was carried away by the taste of your kiss

I sense the danger
But I'm willing to give it a try baby

So far so good
Shot through the heart without a trace of blood
So good so far
