

Stop

Limahl

Once again this love affair
Has got me losing sleep
Cause you and I are going nowhere
You've got me hanging on a string

Every time I say I'm leaving
You're telling me I have no feeling
I'm gonna give you one more chance
Then I'm heading for the door

You better stop
Messing around with my heart
You better stop
Before you tear us apart
You better stop
Messing around with my heart
Before you tear us apart

You must change your attitude
If I decide to stay
Tell me where's the love we entered into
Where is the love we used to make

I cannot go on pretending
The misery is neverending
I'm gonna give you one more chance
Then I'm showing you the door

You better stop
Messing around with my heart
You better stop
Before you tear us apart
You better stop
Messing around with my heart
Before you tear us apart

Remember it's better to have loved and lost
Then never loved at all

You better stop
Messing around with my heart
You better stop
Before you tear us apart
You better stop
Messing around with my heart
Before you tear us apart
