

Everything

Limp Bizkit

I'm so frustrated
Something's making me so sick inside
Oh, go with your heart, go with your heart
Yeah right
Quit tuggin' me
Oh, just not good enough for you
Lets change
Lets be something we're not
And be something everybody else is

Oh, so much built up inside
It's fucking ridiculous
I don't know if I should
Freak the fuck out on you
I just sit back and laugh
And you want more
You don't have anything
And me, me
I have everything, yeah
I have everything
What more could I ask for
Nothing at all

Why did it have to be this way at the end
Why did it have to be this way at the end
