

The Only One

Limp Bizkit

Hold up you're movin too fast
Im up for something that lasts
I aint looking to screw on the first night
Cause that's a no go
And if the vibes good, go to first base
'cause the first kiss could be your last taste
I aint looking to screw till the vibes right

See Im the only one you know
That can put you on cruise control
Yeah im the only one you'll find
That wont waste all my time, on nothing
Nothing, on nothing, nothing
My will is stronger than most
I will not let you get close
Until i think that you deserve me
Cause that's a no go
Im gonna hold out, so in the meantime
Don't expect much from a strong mind
Until i think that you deserve me

Im holdin out, im gonna wait
Wanna make it past the first date
A little time then we can do
All them nasty things you want to do
Don't get me wrong just take my hand
And i really hope you understand that
Its easier when every second counts
So well just have to wait
Its really no big deal (2x)

Id hate to get you in bed
Find out your empty instead
No need to knock another home run out
Cause that's a no go
And i hate to be so filthy
If we were not meant to be
No need to knock another homerun out

See Im the only one you know
That can put you on cruise control
Yeah im the only one you'll find
That wont waste all my time, on nothing
Nothing, on nothing, nothing
My will is stronger than most
I will not let you get close
Until i think that you deserve me
Cause that's a no go
Im gonna hold out, so in the meantime
Don't expect much from a strong mind
Until i think that you deserve me

Nothin, on nothin, nothin
On nothin, on nothin
