

I don't believe in your crazy theories
I hate your dreams cause they make me weary I don't subscribe to the bullshit that you'd have me wear as a badge of honor
You think I'm dumb and you can't understand it why I'm numb to the things you planned out you don't believe me when I am gasping you think its funny and you push me back under

Leave me standing here with next to nothing
just enough to bring me trouble
Now I'm here and I don't know what to do thanks to you and your twisted logic

Take it somewhere else
That's quite enough
I've had my fill I've had enough

Since when did you start caring what's with your change of heart since when did I mean more to you than all those who came before I can't believe that you'd have me face it didn't mean to bring you down and now that you're here with me I think I'll hang around

Leave me standing here with next to nothing
just enough to bring me trouble
Now I'm here and I don't know what to do
thanks to you and your twisted logic
