

Broken

Lincoln Brewster

Give me strength to be broken
Give me strength to be broken for You oh God
Give me strength to stop hiding
Give me strength to stop hiding from You oh God

I pray that I will be broken
A spirit that's usable to You
I lay my pride at the altar
I sacrifice my life to You

Give me strength to be a humble man
Give me strength to be humble before You oh God
Give me strength to keep fighting
Give me strength to keep fighting for You oh God
