

He's All I Need

Lincoln Brewster

We all like to hide behind our different faces
And we all like to pretend we're in different places
I don't need anyone to give me approval
And I don't mind if you laugh and call me a loser

Cuz He's all I need
To live, to be
He's my decree
He's all I ever need

We all like to brave our faith when misplace it
And we all like to call up too so when I make it
But you and me, we don't need to steal or borrow
Cuz we are kids of the King, of the great tomorrow

He's all I need
To live, to be
He's my decree
He's all I ever need

Open Him, trust in Him, reach for Him
Let the flood of God's tears drown the sea
That should have never been, never been

He's all I need
To live, to be
He's my decree
He's all I ever need
