(Cathy Majeski/Sunny Russ/Stephony Smith)

I've been lookin for your replacement But it looks like I'll have to face it Oh that there isn't one No there isn't one

I've been cryin every night in vain Waitin for an end to this pain Oh but there isn't one No there isn't one

There isn't one single thing I haven't tried Tryin to get you out of my mind But I'm draggin round your memory Chained to this misery

I've been runnin from a broken heart Searchin for a brand new start Oh but there isn't one No there isn't one

There isn't one single thing I haven't tried Tryin to get you out of my mind But I'm draggin round your memory Chained to this misery

Now I'm walkin down a lonesome road
And how I need a hand to hold
Oh but there isn't one
No there isn't one
Oh no there isn't one
No there isn't one
