I Live for the Day

Lindsay Lohan

I've got time to watch you spin around in circles Falling through the cracks inside your mind That's fine I've been through the darkest hour made it to the other side of you I can't live without you I live for the day I live for the night That you will be desperate and dying inside I live for the tears to fall down your face I live for the words you finnaly say I live for the day You are high, thinking your invincable so busy building castles in the sky Your done, and you don't even know it but your eyes have starte d showing that it's true Trying to live without love I live for the day, I live for the night That you will be desperate and dying inside I live for the tears to fall down your face I live for the words you finnaly say I live for the day (2x)I can't live without you I live for the day, I live for the night That you will be desperate and dying inside I live for the tears to fall down your face I live for the words you finnaly say I live for the day (2x)Wanna see you crying (3x) I live for the day
