

Gone Too Far

Lindsey Buckingham

When the last insult comes down from your friends
Hoping all your blind ambition will fall
And the love you know has come to an end
And the silence answers your call

Save me
It's gone too far
It's gone too far

When your waiting for your ocean to rise
All alone at night long after I've gone
And your conversations all end in lies
And you wake up singing one of my songs

Save me
It's gone too far
It's gone too far

Save me
It's gone too far
It's gone too far
