Love From Here, Love From There

Lindsey Buckingham

Sensation sweet at my feet Such a strong appetite With love from here, love from there You only get one bite

With love from here, love from there When everybody went stag With love from here, love from there Everybody was a drag

Sensation sweet at my feet Working up to the loin With love from here, love from there They look you straight in the groin

With love from here, love from there When everybody went stag With love from here, love from there Everybody was a dra
