

Shadow Of The West

Lindsey Buckingham

Dancing ever changing desert sand
I was burned by the touch of her hand
The setting of the sun scares me to death
I'm a shadow shadow shadow of the west

Once upon a time I was strong and proud
Everything that the law would allow
But more and more I feel less and less
I'm a shadow shadow shadow of the west

Memories like shadows scorched in the sand
I'm alone, a lonely man
The setting of the sun scares me to death
I'm a shadow shadows shadow of the west
