

You Do Or You Don't

Lindsey Buckingham

Living in exile ain't the way to go
It's just another way of dying
A whole lot of faces that you call your own
All those faces are crying

You either run or you hide
Now you slip now you slide
You say you will, but you won't
You either do or you don't

Living in exile, just gotta let it go
You know that it's true
Just like a little child, you're got to crawl away
It's the last chance for you

You either run or you hide
Now you slip now you slide
You say you will, but you won't
You either do or you don't

Somebody's go to see this through
All the world is laughing at you
Somebody's got to sacrifice
If this whole thing's gonna turn out right

You either run or you hide
Now you slip now you slide
Now you will, now you won't
You either do or you don't
