Naked in the back of the car Swallowing words bitter as gall Should i disappear? No! Should i try again? This night is burning me Like sand, Driving away from this town, Scattering. Dissatisfaction -shame!-The result of a wrong taxonomy Who's to blame? Me...no! Try again. Like a stone, Rolling on the new world in front of me, Mental, foolish and ironic as life. I'm not here I've disappeared Like Houdini this night raped me Forget your faults! Phoenix let's born again! Don't be restless! Silence...and now i'm disappeared Cigarette...like Houdini Phoenix i swallow a new sense of me I'm not me i'm not you Houdini raped me! Vertigo: This night is burning me Like a rolling stone, on the highway 5 in the morning In the back of the car Hold on, Each night is waiting for A new day Don't be restless Like wind, Speeding on the highway -naked-Wipe out your thoughts. Be ironic as life I'm not here I've disappeared Like Houdini this night raped me Forget your faults! Phoenix let's born again! Don't be restless! Silence...and now i'm disappeared Cigarette...like Houdini Phoenix i swallow a new sense of me I'm not me i'm not you

Houdini raped me!
