

Overload

Linea 77

My eyes raised to this blood red sky fist to this sun
frozen words change into tears choked voices lost in this cold wind stoke up the fire
passion is over mirror tell me if you can tell me who am I now?

Senseless declared the end a word devoid of any defense you wanna run away
burn this city with all its memories sweet is the sound of a new born overlad
I can't say a word...

With a straight below to your face I've never said before you changed my world

You step aside
words like a knife in my spine always hostile to this waveless fate choked screams lost in this blank wall twilight zone
reaction and clench your teeth
twilight zone
reaction
breathe!
Silence is over
mirror tell me if you can
tell me who am I now?
