Part of me won't go away Everyday reminded how much I hate it Weighted against the consequences Can't live without it so it's senseless Wanna cut it out of my soul And just live with a gaping hole Take control of my life And wash out all the burnt taste I made the problems in the first place Hang my head low 'cause it's part of me Ya hardly see right next to the heart of me Hurting me, the wounds soon scar New cuts cover where the old ones are And now I'm sick of this I can't stand the sandpaper thoughts that grade on my sanity I rather not even be then the man that's staring in the mirror throug h me

Cut myself free willingly Stop just what's killing me (4x)

I feel it everyday
I feel I made my way
I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside
Swallowing me

Freedom can be frightening if you've never felt it Once it's been dealt with you feel like you've been touched by someth ing angelic

And then melted down into a pool of peace Cease to be the animal you used to be Remove the broken parts you know were wrong And feel the calm when the problem's all gone

And then you start to see another piece of yourself that you can't le  $\mathsf{t}$  be

Memories of the last fight to free yourself
Take it to the depths of the bottom of the well
And now you know you can choose to lose the part in your heart
Where your insides bruised
You can live if you're willing to Put a stop to just what's killing you

Cut myself free willingly Stop just what's killing me (4x)

(Alive in me, inside of me, a part of me screams away silently This part of me won't go away, part of me won't go away Everywhere I look around I see how everyone aught to be Every time I see myself I see there's always something wrong with me)

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside, swallowing me (2x)
