

Everyday Life

Lion Babe

Yesterday I woke up bad
But everyone ignored me
Tomorrow I might be sad
And treat it like a [?]
Sunrise, rub my eyes
Sleep's the only thing that lies between
Late night, drunk fights
Back to blank in the morning
Church bells are ringing outside
Yeah they'll never know if I can get it right

Everyday life
Everyday life

Wonder why we get so high
On everything that's boring
I guess I should take the time
For what I know's important
People are screaming outside
Yeah they'll never know
If they can get it right

Everyday life
Everyday life

Never mind the distant pass
Although it can be haunting
It's too late to take it back
You can't erase your story
Everyone's dreaming inside
Yeah they'll never know if we can get it right
