Demon in Your Mind

Lion's Share

Steal the light, let darkness be forever Heaven is the mercenary's alibi Curse the light, tonight you'll be the reaper Master of "Extermination Enterprise"

One more demon in your mind Disciple and prisoner, warrior and slave South of heaven you will rise The voices are calling, they're calling again

Bleeding eyes will never see the sunlight Family ties are broken by a stranger's hand Screaming eyes as blood runs from their faces Locked behind the fences of anxiety

One more demon in your mind Disciple and prisoner, warrior and slave South of heaven you will rise The voices are calling, they're calling again

Cast away inside an institution Victim of intrusion or another child?

One more demon in your mind Disciple and prisoner, warrior and slave South of heaven you will rise The voices are calling, they're calling again One more demon in your mind Disciple and prisoner, warrior and slave South of heaven you will rise The voices are calling, they're calling again
