

Autumn Flow

Lior

Oh feels like autumns back again so soon I see my father turning grey under a silver moon Don't remember when he was a young man anymore Well that's too long ago suddenly I'd be asking you if you'll love me all the time even when the diamond loses its shine whoa whoa yeah

the heaviness of loss the weightlessness of a baby boy the despair and imminent joy you know temptation only shows yer one side of its face gotta make sure you see the other before you join the rat race
don't know why I'm so happy to take care of you but I've learnt to go with the flow and that's what the flow wants to do so I don't need to tell you do I my girl that you are sunshine you're everything good in a world well you know I'm thinking about myself less and less only holler if it's SOS taking bigger steps to get to you happy to sit her and watch you and I grow and bathe in this sweet autumn flow

you know temptation only shows yer one side of its face
