

Runner

Lipali

how far you are ? no message in the bottle you we're as a star small point on the sky all of the words are missing in the air all that was made has no sense are you a runner too? nobody needs your care next evening getting dark stealing names how much have you lost ? so many things are useless how deep can you hide in last breath , fire mouth

all of the words are missing in the air all that was made try to cut thin shinny thread

are you a runner too? exile from the bright next evening getting dark friend of mine...
