

Love Me, Love Me

Liquido

All that I want is a lover what I don't need is another friend someone out there blow my cover hear me call my mother's name on the mend all that I want is the top notch but they say that this is hard to find one in a million ain't not that much for a weirdo picture on my mind how come you're way getting closer again another little bedroom endorser and I will nevermore hear you just say
"love me love me as you do" all I want is live forever at a price that I'm prepared not to pay someone out there give me shelter for a night and let me go away i don't know why you're calling i can't say what is coming up on the way i want somebody to want me i can no longer just beg you to stay i know you blame for nothing now i know you hate me for nothing now i know you need me for nothing now and I will evermore hear you just say
