

Not Again

Liquido

All happens to quickly, no not again I know that you're down now, come up again and if you could count now, from one to ten
...but you'll never learn how...

you wanted to push me, no not again I'm back and I spit flames, I'm hot again you've tried to disturb me, no not again
...but you didn't know...

refrain:

...that if you could not breath...you couldn't speak you don't even get older

...and if you could not run...you couldn't hide watch your back cause they'll get `ya

...been pushed to the limit, no not again this process is finished, come up again so dried out and bachstabed, no not again
...but you'll never learn

be careful don't freak out, no not again

I got no protection, no not again your anger is like hatred, no not again

...and you should have known...

Don't take it out on me, I'm withering put me up above them, I'm striving for goodness I'm heaven sent, get down...get down
