

Valentine

Liquido

I've been here for a while exhilarated by that pretty smile I like your ways today a lovely day remains I wanna feel you by coincidence that memory is what I wanna take I'm weeping in that stain just to here you
say my little valentine and say if you really like me your beauty hits the needle ashes left and buried deep inside don't lie like that how can you f turn me on and there's a place that I will find someday and bring me back to my waves again I'm creeping in that stain
and stay if you really like me
