

How Many More Times

Lisa Ekdahl

How many more times must i cry
How many more times must i say goodbye
To you
I've opened all the way
For you
It's always just someday

How many more times must i try
How many more times must i lay down and die
For you
I'd lose mountains
And blue skies
But i can't help losing my mind for you
How many more times

I'd lose mountains
And blue skies
But i can't help losing my mind for you
How many more times
