

Baby On The Plane

Lisa Germano

I see your eyes looking at me
Oh yeah, alright, love has started to take
You have given, I have taken a picture
This might not last forever

Your eyes, beauty and tequila
These eyes give this a reason
Baby on the plane
Woman shaking beside her

Oh yeah, your eyes and tequila get me through today
Baby on the plane, the woman next to her was so old
And she was shaking, why do we go through this?
'Cause of the way you look at me
