In the wrong time
In the wrong place
In the wrong mind

Can't find the time
Can't find the thoughts
Can't find the signs

Everything seems just as it seems Just as it seems

Losing the feel Lost all the feel Of real things

Close your eyes
Not a pretty sight
And i'll tell you what
It's not gonna be alright
This time

What not to see What not to hear What not to be

When you begin Seeing your sins Seeing your sins

Everything missing

Lost all the feel Losing the need for real things

Close your eyes
It's not a pretty sight
And i'll tell you what
It's not gonna be alright
This time
