

Nobody Noticed It

Lisa Marie Presley

I heard broken footsteps
Was that you limping?
Well I wish I that could have spent just a little bit more time with you...yeah

Tears on my ceiling
Weren't you watching?
Well I guess that none of us will ever know what comes after th is

You're still lovely
You were lovely then
All that you had to endure
I guess nobody noticed it

I know your resemblance
Um it's out there walkin'
And I wanted you to know that I haven't forgotten

When they try to make you look broken
Not while I'm livin'
But I wanted you to know that I heard what you said when it was rainin'

You're still lovely
You were lovely then
All that you had to endure
I guess nobody noticed it

You made me
I love you
And do you know nothing has changed
Now everyone they notice it
Everyone notices

You're still lovely
You were lovely then
All that you had to endure
I guess nobody noticed it

You made me
I love you
And do you know that nothing has changed?
Now everyone they notice it
Everyone notices
