

So Long

Lisa Marie Presley

This here is a city without lights
Those are all the people without eyes

Churches they don't have a soul
Soup for sale without a bowl
Religion so corrupt and running lives

Farewell, fair weathered friends
I cant say I'll miss you in the end

So long, seems that I was so wrong
Seems I wasn't that strong
Dead wrong and now I'm long gone
Wrong side, I've been sleepin' on the wrong side
Stains all over my soul I can't hide
Nothing's more clearer than goodbye

These roads they don't lead to anything
These people they talk, they say nothing

Actors they don't have a part
Heartfelt people with no heart
I'll find a new crowd, make a new start

Farewell, fair weathered friends
I can't say I'll miss you in the end

So long, seems that I was so wrong
Seems I wasn't that strong
Dead wrong and now I'm long gone
Wrong side, I've been sleepin' on the wrong side
Stains all over my soul I can't hide
Nothing's more clearer than goodbye

So long, farewell, auf wiedersehen
Say nothing at all if you've nothing nice to say

So long, seems that I was so wrong
Seems I wasn't that strong
Dead wrong and now I'm long gone
Wrong side, I've been sleepin' on the wrong side
Stains all over my soul I can't hide
Nothing's more clearer than goodbye
