

Un-Break

Lisa Marie Presley

I have to wonder what the hell I ever did to deserve this?

Is it just me or most people a drag and dishonest?

I own up, I try
What am I not doing right?
Who said it keeps on coming?
Baby I'm just missing something

I've got run over by my own parade
I've suffocated in the beds I've made
I've cut my feet on all the glass that I break
Still trying to find a way
To get what's broken
To un-break

Somewhere along the line I must have been a backstabbing liar

Maybe in another life I was a snake or vampire

I own up, I try
What am I not doing right?

But shit it keeps on coming
Maybe I should change my plumbing

I've got run over by my own parade
I've suffocated in the beds I've made
I've sharped teeth on all the daggers and blades
Still trying to find a way
To get what's broken
To un-break

I own up, I try
What am I not doing right?

But shit it keeps on coming
Maybe I'm just missing something

I've got run over by my own parade
I've suffocated in the beds I've made
I've cut my feet on all the glass that I break
Still trying to find a way
To get what's broken
To un-break
