

Well I got home and my head it was full of cars and buses Flashing lights
racing sirens
sirens

Well over the fence there came a melody
Erik Satie, Erik, Satie,
the wind and me

Well I stepped through the back door and the sky
it stretched forever
painted clouds
I hope they never come down
That sound