Set Your Loving Free

Lisa Stansfield

Baby don't go You've nearly shown everything you are to me Darling don't stray stay here with me Because that's how it ought to be You've come this far to see who you are See the love inside yourself So don't be afraid I'm holding your hand Just let the love run freely through me

You're so tangled up in love Searching for your soul, searching for yourself So tangled up in love That you can't see anything else

My oh my Do I have to tell you how to live your life Ooh baby don't you know, now that your mine You've got to set your loving free

My oh my Do I have to tell you how to live your life Ooh baby don't you know, now that your mine You've got to set your loving free

Tell me you see all we can be That we can be magical Throw off your pride and show me inside Show me what your frightened of

You're so tangled up in love Searching for your soul, searching for yourself So tangled up in love That you can't see anything else

My oh my Do I have to tell you how to live your life Ooh baby don't you know, now that your mine You've got to set your loving free

You're so tangled up in love Searching for your soul, searching for yourself So tangled up in love That you can't see anything else

My oh my Do I have to tell you how to live your life Ooh baby don't you know, now that your mine You've got to set your loving free
