

It's Not Me

Lissie

Back and forth
I'm moving north
You can have my things
I don't need them anymore

Only think of me from time to time
'Cause it's not me, it's not me you need
I'm not the one, not the one you want
Don't you wait, don't you wait for me, don't you wait
I leave you twisting in the wind, you'll curse the day you let me in And the day you let me leave

Worst and best
I'm heading west
And you can't have my heart
I need, both parts, both parts, to carry on

Only think of me from time to time
'Cause it's not me, it's not me you need
I'm not the one, not the one you want
Don't you wait, don't you wait for me, don't you wait
I leave you twisting in the wind, you'll curse the day you let
me in And the day you let me leave

The day you let me leave
The day you let me leave

It's not me, it's not me you need
Not the one, not the one you want
Don't you wait, don't you wait for me, don't you wait
I leave you twisting in the wind, you'll curse the day you let me in
Oh, the day I'm gone under your skin
Was the day you thought when you could win
But it's not me, it's not me you need
I'm not the one, not the one you want

Don't you wait, don't you wait for me
Don't you wait, don't you wait for me
Don't you wait, don't you wait for me
Don't you wait
