

Together or Apart

Lissie

I will call out your name
I will be the night and I will wake the day
And I'll touch you with my mind
And I'll trust the steady hands that make the time

Is it wrong to want
To long and ache and haunt you?

I'll be brave for our sake
Though I'll count the hours and I will lie awake
I am close, I'm in your heart
And distance cannot finish what we start
Together or apart

We will walk hand in hand
And find the unsaid words to understand
And though I'll miss you, well, I know
It's never goodbye, oh, when you go

Is it right to need
To love with such desire and intensity, oh?

I'll be brave for our sake
Though I'll count the hours and I will lie awake
I am close, I'm in your heart
And distance cannot finish what we start
Together or apart

I'll be brave for our sake
Though I'll count the hours and I will lie awake
We are close, we're of one heart
And distance cannot finish what we start
Together or apart
Oh, together or apart
Oh, together or apart
