Timeless sheets of gold
Underneath the sand here lies a friend
Funeral in my heart
Buried in myself you'll live again
I can't tell you what you need to hear
I can't give you what you need to heal
I can't touch you what you need to feel
My faith is scarred
So help me god
I wished I believed in Miracles or so they said
Timeless sheets of gold
Underneath the sand here lies a friend
Funeral in my heart
Buried in myself you'll live again
I can't tell you what you need to hear
I can't give you what you need to heal
I can't touch you what you need to feel
I don't know how I'm dealing with the pain
From what you've been through
All I know I'm a better human being being Just that I've known you
What know is that it kills me when I think of what you went through All I know I'm a better human being being Just that I've known you
My faith is scarred
God damn you God
