

Forever Begins Right Now

Lit

Oh I, I'm so happy that you're mine
From now 'til the end of time
Forever begins right now

Everybody thought that we
Were doomed from the start
But nobody knows what I see
When I look in your heart
They said we didn't equal
Now we're writing us a sequel
And I'm giving you the starring role
And I know they don't believe it
But I swear I'm never leaving I'll be here
Until the credits role

Nothing they can do
No matter what they say
On top of the world
Cause she's with me

Oh I, I'm so happy that you're mine
From now 'til the end of time
Forever begins right now

The way you look at me
I see my world in your eyes
And even though it's shattered
It doesn't really matter
It's just you and I
Everything is better when
It's you and me together
And we're proving everybody wrong
The motor is revin'
We're rolling through heaven
And the angles are singing our song

Oh I, I'm so happy that you're mine
From now 'til the end of time
Forever begins right now

Bright as the morning
You light up the night
We're so far from normal
And it feels so right

It feels so right, I'm so happy that you're mine
From now 'til the end of time
Forever begins right now

Oh I, I'm so happy that you're mine
From now 'til the end of time
Forever begins right now
