

She Don't Know

Lit

She's in her own little world
Surrounded by all the people that tell her
What I've been trying to say
But I couldn't
And she wouldn't hear it anyway

She's got it all figured out
Her mind is made up
There's nothing to talk about
If only I knew a way to get through

It's breaking my heart
Watching her go
And she don't know
She don't know
I'm falling apart
But I won't let it show
Cuz she don't know
She don't know

She's so much better than this
She knows I should be the one that she's leaving with Fakes another smile and puts on her coat

It's breaking my heart
And she don't know
She don't know
I'm falling apart
But I won't let it show
Cuz she don't know
She don't know

Whatever you wanted
I wanted too
Whatever you needed
I needed you
Wherever you are I hope it's good
I hope you're good
