Aces & Eights

Lita Ford

We only take what we need In black and white The city bleeds

Love cuts you down to the bone And walks these streets With the eyes of a hunter

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law For sinners and saints Dead man's hand holds Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Aces & Eights

We let each other bleed And watch our bones Fall in the dust You can hear the children howl It's all they see In the hour of the wolf

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law Sinners and saints Dead man's hand holds Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Hey, Aces & Eights

Daytime
Nighttime
Standing in line
At the border
I wanna lay down the law
I wanna tell 'em how it should be

Bad blood flows from

The father to the son How red the river runs, yeah Love was the law

Love was the law For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law
For sinners and saints
The dead man's hand holds
Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing Aces & Eights

Hey, Aces & Eights Hey, Aces & Eights Uw, yeah, Aces & Eights Aces & Eights
