Hellbound Train

Bad luck and trouble Crashin' through my veins And I ain't bound for glory There's a devil in my brain

Got a fistful of whiskey A suitcase full of sin An' there's a thousand nasty habits Underneath my skin, yeah

We can fly on wings of the flames Comin' down hard, only yourself to blame Playin' so tough in a deadly game Ain't that a shame

Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train

I'm a speed demon, baby Movin' way too fast You put a dagger through my soul But you'll never kick my ass, oh no

We can fly on the wings of the flames Comin' down hard, only yourself to blame Playin' so tough in a deadly game Ain't that a shame

Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train Goin' down tonight, I'm Hellbound

Well, I ain't good for nothin' Nothin's what I crave I'm your angel of darkness And I'll see you in hell one day

We can fly on the wings of the flames Comin' down hard, only yourself to blame Playin' so tough in a deadly game Ain't that a shame

Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train Goin' down tonight on a Hellbound train Goin' down tonight, I'm Hellbound On a Hellbound train
