Am I too young for you, babe Am I too stupid to see When I get home to see you I rush after your charms

It's naughty, to be here

And my love song for you, babe Is it all that you propose Then I'm lyin on top of you Wait I can not see

It's naughty to be here
It's naughty...

But I can't say that I love you anymore I just wanna make you happy Just living for today Baby Blue I'm yours But I only wish it was my plan Change the wild love song To the one you hate

Is it all that your waiting for Patience and you'll see
That in too long you'll be alone
You let me go

Its naughty to be here Its naughty...

But I can't say that I love you anymore I just wanna make you happy Just living for today Baby Blue I'm yours
But I only wish it was my plan Change the wild love song
To the one you hate

It's naughty to be here
It's naughty..
